LifeCraft has been 'Making Well-being Work' for our customers since we established in 2000. One way we do this is through delivering learning and development programmes.

Research indicates a range of benefits can be achieved by proactively managing mental health and well-being, these include:

- Increased productivity and quality of work
- Improved staff morale and performance
- Reduced sickness absence and presenteeism
- Improved staff attitudes and behaviours
- Reduced recruitment costs through lower staff turnover
- Reduced work-related injury and accidents

We are offering 25% off
The ILM training programme in Managing Mental Well-being at Work.
Running in Chippenham on the 19th/20th September.
